A Request:It would help us to know you better if you could tell us something of a story of your parents and grandparents. Things like where they started from, why they came west, what challenges they faced and what they did when they arrived at their destination. The association has been collecting historical sketches dating back to the 1800's. We would like to add the story of your family to our collection. They are part of a priceless heritage. Please attach them to your application.Annual fee $20.00 Fees are set by council and are due at the beginning of each year. The Alberta Government introduced a new act protecting the privacy of individuals. We would like your permission to add your name to our membership roster and your stories to our Historical collection. In order to do that, we require your signature indicating your permission to do so.
